

I strongly support your decision on not allowing "Saving Private Ryan" to be viewed during prime TV in its unedited version. It would not have been too much trouble for ABC to edit out the material that would be objectionable and that would have been inappropriate for children who would be watching at this time.

Thanks,

Jerry